"WINE"

Universal-Jewel
With CLARA BOW and a splendid cast

JOHN WARINER, facing financial ruin, accepts the proposition of a bootlegger to lend his name to the business of illegal wine-selling. Then comes the gradual disintegration of the Wariners. The coarsening, weakening process goes on through a cycle of dramatic incidents until at last Wariner stands stricken in the ruin of all that he loved best—his own hand having cast the boomerang that has returned to shatter the lives of all three.

The daughter that Wariner has sought to shield is a victim of the poison which had wrecked the lives of so many other men's children; the beautiful wife for a time loses her eyesight, due to wood alcohol. Out of their tribulation comes a new vision and after bitter atonement comes peace and understanding.
